PROPOSED CHANGES
IN W. U. ASSOCIATION

One Relates to Representation on Board of Governors.

Several members of the Salt River Valley Water Users' association yesterday received copies of a circular issued by T. Bone and W. E. Barry, who do not state that they represent any organization but certain sentiment of the community where they live in favor of a change in the organization of the association.

They desire an expression of opinion regarding a change in the by-laws at the April meeting requiring that the various districts be represented on the board of governors by actual residents of the districts.

It is also proposed to reduce the salary of the president to an amount not stated and to abolish altogether the office of counsel to the association.

Favorable action on the suggestion regarding representation on the board of governors would work sweeping changes in the membership of the board on this side of the river, for only one member, E. J. Bennett, resides in the district represented by him.

The other members are H. J. McClung, Elbert Evans, J. P. Orme, Joseph Cope, George M. Halm and Dr. H. H. Stone, who all live outside their districts though they have extensive interests in them.

Such members of the association as were seen yesterday did not favor this proposed change or any other change in the association at this time.

Believed that with the completion of the reservoir the valley would enter upon a critical period of its relations to the government.

HASSAYAMPA GETS DAIRYMEN'S TRADE

Letting of the Butterfat Contract.

The Correction of an Erroneous Report.

The Co-operative Dairymen's association yesterday gave the contract for the purchase of the butterfat to be produced by its members during the next year, to the Hassayampa creamery, which is operated by Messrs. Hegeland and Marshall.

The day before bids were received from this company and from the Valley Pride. The Hassayampa bid was considered the most desirable, though both were rejected, and the matter taken up then with the Hassayampa direct. The terms of the contract are identical with those of the bid as to price, but the argument between them was in respect of conditions, the giving of bonds, etc. These were made satisfactory to both sides.

Last evening J. A. Riggins, president of the Co-operative Dairymen's association, called up The Republican and requested the correction of a statement made in an afternoon paper, that the Maricopa creamery had an opportunity to bid, was not invited to bid, or words to that effect.

Mr. Riggins said he desired to say that an advertisement for sealed bids was published in all the Phoenix daily papers from last Friday until the day of receiving bids. Moreover, he says he called personally at all the creameries, including the Maricopa, and talked the matter over.

Mr. Riggins asked him the number of cows represented by the members of the association, and the names of the members forming the association. He could not give him the information, but Mr. Riggins was just leaving for Buckeye. Later Mr. Webster, a new stockholder in the company, and who it is understood has acquired a controlling interest, called up Mr. Riggins, who gave him the number of cows represented by the association.

Mr. Riggins did not call him up for information, and Mr. Riggins gave to notice of the bidders the list of names of the members of the association.

The invitation to bidders was general, says Mr. Riggins, and so far as he knows, Mr. Riggins of the Maricopa creamery has just as many personal friends among the dairymen as has Mr. Hegeland or the Valley Pride.

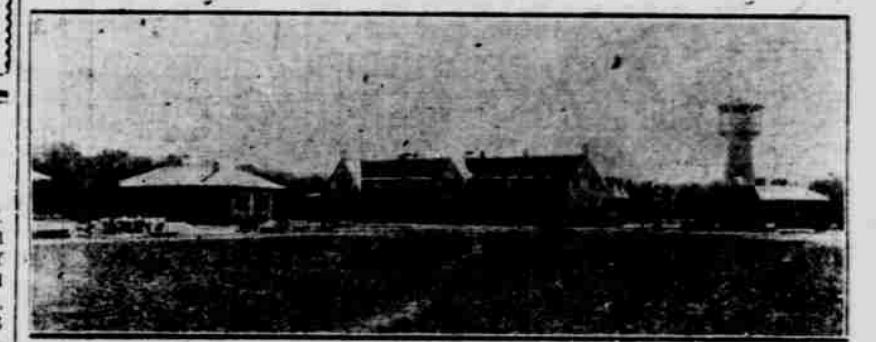

In fact, the association was both surprised and sorry when the Maricopa creamery took no notice of its call for bids. He believes that all the creameries had equal and fair treatment, and there was never an intention of offering special favor to any of them.
